SUCCESSIVE APPLICATION STANDARDS

Whenever any application, appeal or other request filed pursuant to this Chapter has been finally denied on its merits or approved subject to specified conditions, a second application, appeal or other request seeking essentially the same relief, shall not be brought within two years unless, in the unanimous opinion of all members present on the Board or Commission before which the request is brought, one of the following standards has been met:

1. There is a substantial change in circumstances relevant to the issues and/or facts considered during review of the application that might reasonably affect the decision-making body's application of the relevant review standards to the development proposed in the application.

---

---

---

2. New or additional information is available that was not available at the time of the review that might reasonably affect the decision-making body's application of the relevant review standards to the development proposed.

---

---

---

---

3. A new application is proposed to be submitted that is materially different (e.g., proposes new uses, or a substantial decrease in proposed densities and intensities) from the prior application.

---

---

---

---

4. The final decision on the application was based on a material mistake of fact or mistake of law.
